

COURT WAS TAME!

Police Court This Morning Nothing Worth Hearing.

One Man Drunk and Down Was Swiped Because of It.

THE OVERCOAT THIEF HELD OVER People Who Come and Go—Brief Brevities of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

The police court this morning was a rather tame—so tame, in fact, that but little was done. The following sorry business was all that we could find, and this album of song prints that, thinking that it is news when news is news:

Will Snipes, found drunk and staggering, was brought in by Officer Cheek and fined $5. He could not pay the bill and was sent over to the guard house.

Green Stroud, mentioned yesterday for stealing an overcoat, was bound over to court because he could not give a bond in the sum of $50.

And this ended the wonderful court for this a. m., February 16, A. D. 1893.

AS WE GROW.

The Boom Now on Those Who Are in the Profession.

Now that it is given up by every one that a big boom is about to be inaugurated in Durham and that property is compelled to advance to double and treble its present value, it is the duty of every man, old or young, who expects to ever own a home, to secure it now while it is within his reach.

Dr. J. L. Watkins is building houses on very desirable lots and selling on easy terms to a number of our young business men. If you want a home, and what man or woman does not? See Dr. Watkins and even on a small salary he will make it possible for you to own one.

HOKE SMITH WINS.

To Be Secretary of the Interior—Other Callers on Mr. Cleveland.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—President elect Cleveland came up to the city at his usual hour this morning from Lakewood. Sigourney Butler, of Massachusetts, was the first caller. It was announced at the office that Mr. Cleveland had come to New York to meet certain people relative to various minor appointments. Mr. Cleveland sent out word from his private office that he would see no one else. The appointments to be considered were said to have no relation to the cabinet. The fact that Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, and Bluford Wilson were in the city and Hoke Smith was expected to arrive to-day, led to rumors that to-day's conference was to be had with them and other representatives of the South.

Following Butler's call, Wilson S. Bissell and Dan Lamont were admitted together with W. A. Beach, a personal friend of Mr. Cleveland, from the northern part of the state.

Hoke Smith, of Georgia, was the last to arrive and was at once admitted. He remained with Mr. Cleveland upwards of an hour and a half. He refused to say anything in regard to what had passed between him and Mr. Cleveland as he left the office.

Ex Governor Campbell, of Ohio, and Rhodes, editor of the Birmingham (Ala.) News, called early in the afternoon and were admitted when Smith left.

Mr. Cleveland left his office earlier to-day than usual and started for the ferry at 3:30 p. m. When asked regarding the report that Hoke Smith had been offered the secretaryship of the interior, he said: "It's true; yes, it's true, and if I live he will have a place in the cabinet."

DID MARRY TO-DAY!

A Brilliant and Beautiful and Bewitching Marriage.

The Blushing Bride Bewildered Yet Still Was Beautiful.

A PARTIAL LIST OF MANY PRESENTS

What The Globe Reporter in His Professional Business Saw This Morning Where Blossoms Bloomed.

Oh, fickle heart, so gay and coy—
Dost thou know the reason why
I do insist that I'm a boy
And soak myself in red, red dye?

At the residence of the bride's parents last evening, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mr. Colonel Knowlton to Miss Susan Catchemifoucan.

The bride was beautifully and everlastingly attired in a dark strawberry roan and pumpkin flushed horse blanket, inlaid with beeswax and flax thread, throwing a halo of most any thing upon those assembled. The groom, a trifle crippled, because of too many copious draughts of reeking corn likker, looked his best, and had he not laid down to go to sleep behind the stove, would have captivated all the ladies present.

'Squire Cost & Service tied the silken knot which made this lovely couple one, and it is said by those who saw him drink that he was never in better spirit nor had better spirits in him.

The presents were useful, beautiful, costly and numerous.

We note the following:
Cork screw—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jagg.
Horse blanket—for a cow—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Coverim

One head of cabbage—friends of the groom.

One pint of saur kraut—Mr. and Mrs. K. Golepsgerby.

Safety pins—Mrs. T. M. Contingency.

Soup ladle—friend of the bride who thought she was in the soup.

A pint of postage stamp likker—Col. W. A. Albright.

Other and numerous presents were there, but as cards were lacking, and as the excitement ran high, we could not get the full business.

The groom is one of our best business men, being engaged at this time in running a private still in the woods about six miles in a certain direction from Durham. As to the bride, it is only necessary for us to say that she will soon have the wart removed from her nose, under the McKinley bill.

We wish for the happy couple years of prosperity.

THE ANNEX.

What Will Soon Be Done in the Matter of the Pacific Islands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The documents in connection with the Hawaiian annexation treaty are all ready for transmission to the senate, and nothing unexpected arising to prevent, they will be sent to the senate this afternoon. Accompanying the president's message and the text of the treaty will be copies of much of the correspondence between the governments of the United States and of Hawaii respecting the subject of annexation, dating back half a century. The treaty will of course be sent to the senate for consideration in executive session, but it is expected that the injunction of secrecy will be promptly removed by the senate and documents given to the public. The treaty is signed by John W. Foster, secretary of state, and Thurston, Castle, Marsden, Wilder and Carter, commissioners, on behalf of the provisional government of Hawaii.

REVENUE OFFICER SHOT

By a Violator of the Internal Revenue Laws at Marshall.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Feb. 15.—A special to the Evening Citizen from Marshall, N. C., says: A desperate fight occurred this morning at Ivy, near Buncombe county line, between United States Deputy Marshall C. B. Brackers, John L. Lewellyn, his father and others. Lewellyn lives in Buncombe and had come to Madison county. Brackers had a warrant for him for violation of the revenue laws, and attempted to arrest him. A fight ensued in which Brackers was shot three times, but before falling he drew his pistol and shot Lewellyn's father and son and another man who took sides against him. Brackers will die.

Pure blood is what oils the machinery of life, eases every moment of the body, removes stiffness of the joints, drives out pain from the nerves, stimulates the brain, protects the liver and kidneys from irritation, enables physical exertion without fatigue, prolongs life, and makes men and women perfect in health, and feature. Good blood and good brain are inseparable. Aim to keep the blood pure by using the only true blood remedy, B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm.)

Miss S. Tomlinson, Atlanta, Ga., says: "For many years I have been afflicted with rheumatism combined with severe kidney troubles, indigestion and nervous prostration. Several physicians were employed and numerous patent medicines resorted to without benefit. At last I began the use of B. B. B., and its effect was like magic. Rheumatic pains ceased, my kidneys were relieved, and my constitution improved at once."

Z. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "Three years ago I contracted a blood poison applied to a physician at once, and his treatment came near killing me. I employed an old physician and then went to Kentucky. I then went to Hot Springs and remained two months, but nothing

Hot Springs seemed to cure me permanently, although temporary relief was given me. I returned home a ruined man physically, with but little prospect of ever getting well. I was persuaded to try B. B. B., and to my utter astonishment it quickly healed every ulcer."
